To whom it may concern,

Re: Marilyn Smyth

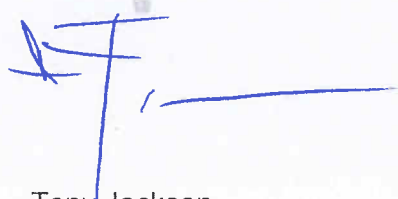

We recently engaged Marilyn Smyth in order to run a sensitive, impartial and exceptionally complex investigation on our behalf.

This assignment ended up running for a number of months, covered many aspects of employment law and required engagement and interviews with a wide range of stakeholders across Macmillan Cancer Support.

In a challenging situation we really benefited from Marilyn's deep experience, technical knowledge and integrity.

I would use her services again without hesitation in the future should a similar situation arise and am very happy to provide this recommendation.

Yours sincerely
