

Testimonial for Marilyn Smyth and Making a Difference

It is with pleasure that we offer this testimonial for Marilyn Smyth, whose professionalism, and investigative expertise have been invaluable to our clients on countless occasions.

Over the years, Marilyn has consistently demonstrated the ability to conduct thorough and sensitive investigations, both personally and through her team at Making a Difference. Her work has been of upmost importance to our clients, often during some of their more challenging workplace moments.

Marilyn's approach is marked by integrity and an unwavering commitment to uncovering the facts with care and precision. Her investigations provide clarity and resolution for those affected and maintain the dignity of those involved.

The long-standing and successful working relationship between Marilyn and Solace is a testament to her reliability, professionalism, and the trust she has earned across our teams. We are proud to continue working alongside her and Making a Difference in continued support of our clients.

With thanks,

Jessica Mullinger
Director of Interim Management
Solace in Business Ltd